

Bring Many Names

An Interfaith Day of Retreat

Friday, April 30, 2010

9:30am-3:30pm

Harrisburg, PA

What is your deepest desire for life, for God?

Using the lovely fable In God's Name, by Sandy Eisenberg Sasso as a springboard, we will seek to uncover some of the names, or qualities, by which the Holy One speaks to each of us wherever we are in life.

On this day of prayer you will find rest and renewal for your spirit as we open our hearts to some of the many faces and names for God.

Location: Progress-Immanuel Presbyterian Church (www.pipc-church.org)
3640 Ash Street, Harrisburg PA 17109-3941

Retreat Fee: $65-95 (as you are able)

Leaders:

Rabbi Carl Choper is the rabbi at the Jewish Home of Greater Harrisburg and an organizer of interfaith dialogue as founding director of the Religion and Society Center. It was through his interest in Jewish-Christian dialogue that he came across Oasis Ministries over 15 years ago and began several years of spiritual direction with Kent Groff.

Alicia Conklin-Wood is an experienced retreat leader and spiritual director with training from the Shalem Institute in Bethesda, MD. She is a retired minister serving as a Parish Associate at First Presbyterian, Lancaster, PA.
